Decoding the special dates of MAY–

1st May	We at SIS encourage the young minds to understand the value of Utility Members of Our Society and develop a perception that “No work is big or small”.
2nd May	This will encourage students to engage with literature, participate in creative activities, and reflect on important values in an enjoyable and interactive way.
3rd May	The primary motive for organizing the first PTM of the new session is to establish a strong foundation of communication and collaboration between parents and teachers. It sets expectations for the academic year, provides an opportunity to address any concerns, and encourages active parental involvement. This meeting ensures that both parents and teachers are aligned in their efforts to support the child’s education, fostering a positive and productive learning environment.
7th May	Celebrating Rabindranath Tagore Jayanti is a way to honor and remember the immense contributions of one of India's most renowned poets, writers, and cultural icons. His timeless ideas continue to inspire, making this day a significant occasion for remembering and promoting his ideals.
9th May	At SIS, school captains are made to provide students with the chance to develop important life skills, foster leadership qualities, and play an active role in the school's community. They not only lead by example but also inspire their peers to strive for excellence and contribute to the positive growth of the school environment.
19th to 30th May	UDAAN will offer a rich, diverse set of opportunities for students to learn, grow, and have fun outside the traditional school setting. This will play an important role in promoting personal development, physical health, creativity, and social interaction, all of which contribute to a well-rounded education.
21ST May	Tea Day and Music Day at SIS will offer numerous benefits, from improving social interactions and fostering creativity to promoting well-being and cultural awareness. Together, these events contribute to a positive, dynamic school environment, allowing students to develop new skills, engage with each other, and enjoy themselves in meaningful ways.
